GENERAL INFORMATION

Who Is Required to Have This License?

The Oregon Division of Financial Regulation registers individuals or companies that collect third-party debts or repossess collateral, such as a vehicle. Specifically, ORS 697.005 defines a collection agency as a person that:

- Directly or indirectly solicits a claim for collection;
- Collects or attempts to collect a claim owed or asserted to be owed to a third party;
- Sells, offers to sell or furnishes forms represented to be a collection system, even if the creditor uses its own name in collecting the debt using the collection system;
- Uses a fictitious name or name other than their own to collect their own debt;
- Repossesses or attempts to repossess collateral due or asserted to be due to another person; or
- Collects claims from another person while using a name other than the usual business name of the party owed the debt and that tends to convey that a third-party has been engaged to collect the claim.

ORS 697.015 requires that a collection agency be registered in Oregon to operate in this state.

Activities Authorized Under This License

This license authorizes the following activities...

- First party debt collection
- Third party debt collection

Pre-Requisites for License Applications

- None.

Oregon Division of Financial Regulation does not issue paper licenses for this license type.

Document Uploads Guidance

Documents that must be uploaded to the Document Uploads section of the Company Form (MU1) in NMLS are indicated in the checklist below. When uploading documents:

- Follow the guidance in Document Upload Descriptions and Examples.
- Only upload documents relevant to the company application.
- Only upload documents where there is a selectable document category. If inappropriate documents are uploaded that should not be, you will be contacted by your regulator and asked to remove them from NMLS.
- Do not upload the same company documents multiple times. Generally, unless the document is state-specific, if the document has already been uploaded for another state, a new upload is not required unless changes have been made.
- If a document previously uploaded has been revised, delete the old document and replace it with the new document (history of the old document will remain in NMLS).
- For state-specific documents (e.g., Surety Bonds), be sure to indicate the applicable state.
